„There are places where you never forget what happened there.“

rejuvenation point and retreat for your soul

For those who are seeking golden moments in their lives, at GOLDEN HILLS – a luxurious hideaway nestled in the pristine wine region within the delightful South Styria – you will find them.

Are you searching for individuality? Are you a wine aficionado and gourmet? Are you looking for something special with utmost privacy? We warmly invite you to enjoy and experience tranquility in our amazing paradise. Guided by our motto "Luxury newly defined - Exclusivity sustainably interpreted", we have skillfully combined contrasting features of an old Styrian farmhouse to masterfully create our exclusive romantic chalet "Steinfuchs" with its own wellness facility. At the same time a former stable was transformed into a luxurious panorama loft featuring a 4.000 sqm park including a private spa and a natural infinity swimming pond and surprises with its breathtaking view to the picturesque countryside. We also provide the ultimate comfort in each of our three new luxury chalets country style. Each of our unit bolsters individuality in its design and is equipped with a private spa.

Experience the feeling of an outdoor livingroom in our champagne-lounge, an oasis of comfort and tranquility, as just one of many highlights in our idyllic 15.000m² park. We invite you to linger and relax at the 600m² dreamy natural swimming pond, sauna, fitness cube, BBQ station, cozy places for romantic moments together and open fires. Culinary delights are always guaranteed, whether you opt for Barbara's private dining, a candle light dinner in your chalet exclusively prepared by our own chef or a wine tasting in our rustic wine cellar.

"Arrive, revive and feel the magic."

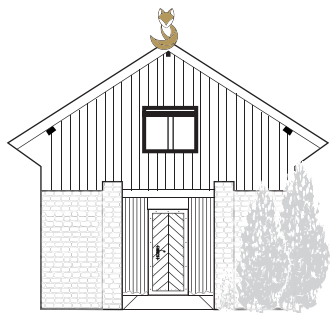

Enjoy a delightful luxury timeout and experience event architecture combined with wellness in utmost privacy in the picturesque rolling hills of South Styria, within a short distance to the cultural capital of Graz.

Your hosts Barbara & Andreas Reinisch warmly welcome you to the Golden Hill Country Chalets & Suites – Your private Hideaway.
